- Addiction to opiates, especially among teens and young adults, is growing at an alarming rate in WNY, and is now considered an epidemic;
- 198 people have died in Erie County in 2015 from opiate related deaths. When the final numbers are in, health officials predict 270 deaths;
- Heroin and other opiates have become one of the most widely abused drugs in Buffalo and surrounding suburbs.

This is an adult only presentation.
